C.R 17.8.38

—The humble appeal Petition from Hanumanaigh late P.C. 38 of Bellary District against the order of the Dist. Bellary for dismissing the appealant for abusing foul Langage and quarreling with his father-in-Law in the Public Police line at Gadiganur:—

Honoured Sir,

Most humbly and respectfully I beg to bring the following for your kind perusal and pray for favourable orders In 1933 while I was at Gadiganur Police Station my father-in-law Contractor Narasingabhan Came to Gadiganur to take my wife to Hospet I told him that I am not sending my wife with him because here I am a single man and it will be very difficult to prepare meals etc and also to attend duties. Hence I did not want to send my wife meanwhile the Station writer Came to me and he told me that I was drunk and he abused me and I did not say any thing to him at that time I was not drunk at that time and moreover I was not on duty also but was on Off duty. NO statement was recorded by the Police Officer from the Contractor Narasingabhan at the time of personal hearing. The order of the dismissal and the statement recorded against me etc in 1933 are in the Dist. Police Office Bellary. They may kindly be perused.

I have also served in the Militar department as a sipoyi in 83rd - walaja light infentary at Kannan in 1918.

Most honoured sir I humbly request your honour to kindly Consider my c deeply and announce the juggement favourably. If your kind honour be pleased to give me order to rejoi duty I will be helped to a very goo extent as I am a big family man with 6 Children. Or if you kindly or to give pension as I have served for 17 years in department I shall be grateful. I have got 3 rewards during my Service. At least I reques your honour to be good enough to giv Compassionate gratuity. Any one of the three may be ordered in favo
of this poor Constable so that I ma be able to feed myself and my child in these hard days.
For which act of kindness I shall be ever grateful with my family

I beg to remain
Honoured sir
your most obedient Servant

To The Secretary to the Government of Madras,

HOME Department.

Sir,

vide 4 ante

Ref:- Home Department Endorsement No. 29929 A-1, dated 2nd September 1938.

I have the honour to state that the petitioner who was enlisted as a fourth class constable on 16th July 1917 was dismissed from service on 18th September 1933. The dismissal order was confirmed by the Deputy Inspector-General of Police, Central Range, and an appeal to me was also rejected - vide my order F.O.C.No.13/P.R./34, dated 9th February 1934 (copy enclosed). Including his military service of 10 months and 7 days from 24th April 1918 to 28th February 1919, his total service qualifying for pension comes to 15 years, 11 months

vide infra

and 25 days as detailed in the sheet enclosed.

2. The petitioner's defaulter sheet (enclosed) shows that he was first reduced in 1929 for unruly and riotous behaviour; 11 months later he was punished for being drunk and disorderly, a year after the last offence he was again dealt with for a similar offence. Six months later he was reduced on serious charges including drunken and disorderly conduct - this being the fourth occasion. He was dismissed from service in September 1933, the principal charge then also being drunken and riotous behaviour (5th occasion).

3. He earned no rewards or Good Service Entries during his service.

4. In my opinion the petitioner deserves no considera tion and the grant of any compassionate allowance would be a very bad precedent.

5. The petition sent with the Endorsement quoted abov is returned herewith.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

for Inspr.-Genl. of Police.

The petitioner, Hanuman Singh was enlisted as a fourth class constable on 16-7-1917 and was dismissed from service on 18.9.1933. Regarding the work and conduct of the petitioner the I.G. of Police remarks as follows:-

"x x x He was first reduced in 1929 for unruly and riotous behaviour; 11 months later he was punished for being drunk and disorderly, a year after the last offence he was again dealt with for a similar offence. Six months later he was reduced on serious charges including drunken and disorderly behaviour - this being the fourth occasion. He was dismissed in Sept. 1933, the principle charge then also being drunken and riotous behaviour (fifth occasion)." The dismissal order was confirmed by the D.I.G. of Police, Central Range and an appeal made to

to the I. G. in 1934 was also rejected.

2. The petitioner requests, after the lapse of four years, that he might be ordered to rejoin duty or given pension for the service of 17 years he had put in. He states that he got 3 rewards during service. The I. G. of Police states that his total service including his military service of 10 months and 7 days which qualify for pension comes to 15 years 11 months and 25 days and that the petitioner has earned no rewards or Good Service Entries during his service.

3. Under the Civil Service Regulations no pension may be granted to an officer dismissed from service. But in such cases deserving of special consideration the Govt. have discretion to grant Compassionate allowance not exceeding two thirds of the pension which would have been admissible if they had retired on medical certificate — Vide Art. 353 C.S.R. In the opinion of the I.G. the petitioner deserves no consideration and the grant of any compassionate allowance would be a very bad precedent. The Home Deptt. observe that this man seems to deserve no concession or consideration in view of his record. Submitted that this Deptt. may agree with the I. G. and the Home Deptt. A draft order is submitted.
